Demos Will Train Probes On GOP

Expect McCarthy To Be Out

WASHINGTON (AP)—The investigating power of Congress will fall into Democratic hands in January, presaging close scrutiny of the inner workings of the Eisenhower administration.

An inevitable aftermath of Tuesday's elections in which the Democrats seized power in the House and evidently in the Senate as well, will be to train congressional probes on different targets.

With one party in control of the executive department and the other in command of the legislative branch, the setup is tailor-made for full use of congressional investigating committees as sounding boards for the 1956 presidential election.

When the Republicans won control of the 80th Congress during the Truman administration, House Speaker Joseph W. Martin Jr. said the GOP would open each day with a prayer and close it with an investigation. Now the situation is reversed.

Virtually sure to be caught in the sights of Democratic investigators will be Eisenhower's program aimed at alleged security risks, administration patronage and civil service policies, and the handling of the refugee immigration program.

Administration officials also are likely to be quizzed closely about their policies toward conservation of natural resources, business mergers and monopolies, the awarding of defense contracts and similar issues tied in with Democratic charges of big business favoritism and "giveaway" programs.

The spotlight on Communists in government probes may face as Republicans who have eagerly dug into the records of past Democratic administrations topple from key committee chairmanships.

Neuberger, Oregon Democrat, Widens Lead Over Cordon

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Richard L. Neuberger, Democrat, widened his lead over veteran Republican Sen. Guy Cordon as most of the last Oregon returns trickled in Thursday.

With only five of the state's 2,499 precincts unreported, Neuberger was ahead by 2,190 votes. The count was Neuberger 285,031, Cordon 282,841. The five outstanding are in sparsely settled Eastern Oregon. They could not change the outcome.

Neuberger trailed in the dramatic race at one time by more than 10,000. The late Wednesday counting of complete returns from his home county, Multnomah, nosed him ahead. His margin then began mounting.

There was a possibility that Republicans would demand a recount. Jess Gard, GOP national committeeman, said party chiefs were considering it but were unable to reach a decision immediately.

BANK BANDIT ESCAPES WITH $45,000

BOSTON (AP)—A pistol-wielding robber, his face blackened with makeup, held up a Beacon street branch of the National Shawmut Bank Thursday and fled with $45,000.

John Kane, assistant manager, told police he was ordered to a teller's cage where Rita Hagen was forced to hand over the money. It was in all denominations.

The bandit was described by employees as about 35 years old, 5 feet 9 and with sandy colored hair.

ELECTION INDICATES PROTEST: A.F.L. MEANY

WASHINGTON (AP)—AFL President George Meany said Thursday the election results showed "a strong anti-administration protest vote among the nation's workers" and reflected "a consistent trend in favor of liberal, progressive candidates."

The AFL claimed gains of 23 members in the House and 4 in the Senate among legislators it considers sympathetic to labor.

Pictures Of Battered Head Of Wife Bring Sobs From Sheppard

CLEVELAND (AP)—Dr. Samuel Sheppard sobbed bitterly Thursday at vivid color slides of his wife's head on a morgue slab. They were screened in the courtroom where he is on trial for first degree murder.

Sheppard was not forced to look at the color slides. They outlined to the jury in every horrid detail the battering that left a once attractive woman with blackened eyes, a broken nose, and bone deep gashes that all but pulverized her skull.

Queen Mother In Capital To Visit Eisenhowers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Queen Mother Elizabeth flew into Washington Thursday, beginning her visit to the capital with a smile and hand wave for the crowd and a compliment for her host, President Eisenhower.

The Queen Mother was greeted by warm applause when she appeared at the door of Eisenhower's plane, the Columbine, which brought her from New York. Secretary of State Dulles welcomed her.

At the White House, President and Mrs. Eisenhower welcomed her. The Queen Mother will remain here until next Wednesday, when she leaves for Williamsburg, Va.

Stratton Declines To Say If He'll Run For Re-election

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Gov. Stratton said Thursday he felt that Illinois Republicans did "very well" in Tuesday's election despite the defeat of their candidate for U. S. senator and the loss of three congressional seats.

Stratton, at a news conference, sidestepped a question about whether he intends to run for re-election in 1956. He said "I'll wait until that time comes."

Sizing up the election, he listed these major reasons for the victory by Democrat Sen. Paul Douglas over Republican Joseph T. Meek:

1. Douglas was "personally well known—our man was not."
2. In Cook County, where Douglas captured a plurality of about 300,000 votes, the Republican party organization "collapsed."
3. The trend in off-year elections is against the party in power.

Stratton said he didn't want to detract from Meek but that Meek was a "completely unknown man who had no record at all in public office."

Dr. A. Schweitzer Urges Man Work To Better World

OSLO, Norway (AP)—Dr. Albert Schweitzer, philosopher, humanitarian, and 1952 Nobel Peace Prize winner, urged mankind Thursday to work for world betterment by matching man's superhuman physical and scientific powers with superhuman reason.

The famed medical missionary to Equatorial Africa made his appeal in a lecture belatedly accepting the peace prize. He spoke in Oslo's University Festival Hall before a notable audience headed by Norway's King Haakon VII.

Calling for an end to war and a revival of the ethical spirit, the 89-year-old Alsatian-born philosopher said that man, with the aid of science and technology, has become a superman.

Plane Carrying 12 Crashes In Tucson

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—A twin-engine military plane crashed and burned moments after taking off from Tucson Municipal Airport Thursday night. The plane was believed to be carrying 12 men. It was not known if any survived.

Reports from the scene said the plane lost power in one motor just after it was airborne. It sheered off powerlines, crashed at the southwest end of a runway and burned.

The plane was first identified as a Navy Convair but later reports indicated it was an Air Force craft.

Seaplane Explodes, Pilot Dies

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The world's fastest seaplane, the Convair YF2Y1 Seadart, exploded over San Diego Bay Thursday.

The plane, making a speed run across the harbor, shattered apart in a huge burst of yellow flame at about 500 feet above the water. The pilot, Charles E. Richbourg, was demonstrating the speed and versatility of water-based planes to a crowd watching from Lindbergh Field.

The accident occurred shortly after 3 o'clock just after Richbourg had taken off across the bay. Richbourg was taken from the water alive but died in a few minutes.

The single-placed Seadart exceeded the speed of sound in a shallow dive last Aug. 3. The plane used the revolutionary technique of hydro-skis for accelerated takeoff. At rest in the water, it floated with its delta wing only an inch or two above the surface.

The plane was approaching from the south when it was seen to burst into flames. It started to disintegrate. Then there was a great blast of flame, with heat so intense that watchers on shore felt it and ducked down to escape the fire as well as the debris.

The YF2Y1 was the second Seadart to undergo flight tests. It had two Westinghouse J34 jet engines that develop a total of 8,500 pounds thrust with afterburners.

The first Seadart made its maiden flight from San Diego Bay April 9, 1953. Witnesses to Thursday's crash said the plane appeared to take off almost reluctantly. It made a long run down the bay, a great shower of spray in its wake.

Senate Meets Nov. 8 To Act On Censure Of Sen. McCarthy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) said Thursday the Senate will reconvene Monday as scheduled to act on a censure resolution against Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and "the debate is just going to have to run its course."

Knowland, the Republican floor leader, said he expects the special session will last at least two weeks. The McCarthy camp has suggested it might last until nearly Christmas.

Knowland, questioned at a news conference about a suggestion by Sen. Hayden (D-Ariz.) that the start of the session might be delayed as one result of Tuesday's elections, said he had heard of no request for a postponement.

McCarthy, in a renewal of his feud with Secretary of the Army Stevens, said Thursday he will demand that Stevens tell "why he is hiding the secret master responsible for codding" former Maj. Irving R. Peress.

U.N. Assembly Approves Talks On Disarmament

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. General Assembly Thursday unanimously approved new closed-door talks on disarmament and prohibition of atomic weapons. The project was backed by the Western Powers and Russia in their first unanimous action on disarmament since 1946.

The main effect of the action Thursday was to take a new start on the problem. Delegates of East and West agreed that the negotiators on disarmament, who are expected to resume their tasks in a few weeks, will face great obstacles.

The 60-nation Assembly approved a resolution providing for a subcommittee made up of the United States, Britain, France, Canada and the Soviet Union.

Demos Prepare To Take Control Of Both Houses

Turncoat GI Lives Life Of Ease In China, Mother Says

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—The American GI who spurned his native land for communism after the Korean War is living a life of ease in China, according to claims reportedly made by one of the turncoats in letters to his mother.

Mrs. Carley Jones, a Holiness preacher, told the Oklahoma City Times she had corresponded regularly with her son and he painted a glowing picture of life under communism.

Mrs. Jones said her son, Pic. Samuel David Hawkins, wrote that one of the 21 who refused repatriation had died of a heart ailment. She identified him as Sgt. Rufus E. Douglas, San Angelo, Tex., and said her son told her he was buried with high honors by the Red government in a white vault bearing the inscription of "American hero."

Pic. Hawkins, captured by the Chinese in Korea shortly after his 17th birthday, is attending Peking University "and has everything he wants," his mother said.

His letters said the other 18 war prisoners who didn't come home are regarded with great respect by the Chinese people. They have been assigned to schools or jobs according to aptitudes, shown on government examinations, according to the letters, and feel they have as much freedom as they need.

Mrs. Hawkins herself denounced the Communist way of life but said she was glad her son didn't come home.

"I know that may sound funny," she added, "but I can't keep from it. I know this, and that he's all right physically. If he had come back, he probably would have been tried and sent to prison. I don't think I could stand that."

Congress Study Sees 50 Per Cent Production Hike

WASHINGTON (AP)—A study undertaken for a joint congressional committee predicted Thursday that by 1965 the nation's economy will be half again as big as now. It said taxes will be lower, work hours shorter, wages higher and the nation's population will have grown to 190 millions.

The forecast was made by the staff of the Senate-House Committee on the Economic Report. It was entitled "Potential Economic Growth of the United States During the Next Decade" but actually took in the 12 years from the end of 1953 through 1965.

The report predicted that unemployment in 1965 would be about three million persons, or about 4 per cent of the civilian labor force of some 76 million persons forecast for that time.

This would compare with unemployment estimated by the Census Bureau at 2,741,000 of 4.2 per cent of the civilian labor force, in October of this year.

In transmitting the findings to the committee, staff Director Grover W. Ensley said they were based on assumptions that the next decade would see no major war.

The joint committee is headed by Rep. Wolcott (R-Mich.). It is an economic study group consisting of senators and representatives from both parties.

GODFREY N. NELSON DIES NEW YORK (AP)—Godfrey Nicholas Nelson, 76, vice president and secretary of the New York Times, died Thursday, apparently of heart disease. He was associated with the Times for 38 years.

Florida and Tennessee have the largest phosphate mines in the United States.

Downstate Canvass Gives Warren Wright Lead By 6,498 Votes

CHICAGO (AP)—Republican Warren Wright Thursday night claimed election as state treasurer on the basis of unofficial returns which showed he had a lead of more than 6,000 votes over his Democratic opponent.

"I am grateful to my thousands of friends throughout the state whose efforts again elected me to the office of state treasurer," Wright said.

The unofficial tabulation, with all but seven precincts reported, showed a total of 1,636,827 for Wright and 1,630,329 for David Mallett, of East St. Louis. The missing precincts are from Cook County (Chicago) in suburban areas normally voting Republican.

The returns from more than a third of the downstate counties have been canvassed and are official.

The downstate vote was Mallett 640,027, Wright 865,137. With all but seven of the Cook County (Chicago) precincts in, the county vote was Mallett 990,302, Wright 768,690.

Gov. Stratton, in a news conference in Springfield, earlier claimed victory for Wright.

Meanwhile, Robert Ticken, U.S. attorney at Chicago, said he had received a telegram from Mallett alleging violations in four counties. He said Mallett asked him to investigate election night actions in Boone, DuPage, McHenry and Kane counties.

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—Police stood guard Thursday over ballots in New Jersey's U. S. Senate election as new vote totals revisions boosted Republican Clifford P. Case's slim lead to 3,308 ballots.

With 18 of the state's 21 county clerks having doublechecked and revised their final figures, Case appeared to be the probable winner over Democrat Charles R. Howell on the basis of unofficial counts. A recount was possible.

Meantime, Sen. Barrett (R-Wyo.) announced that the Senate Privileges and Election Subcommittee will "be looking down" on the tight election. He said the subcommittee would interview candidates and leaders of both parties—although there had been no charges of misconduct—at the request of Sen. Hendrickson (R-N.J.), who is retiring.

During the day, Case gained a thousand votes as the revisions continued. The state's 3,998 election districts gave him 851,181 votes and Howell 857,873. The absentee and servicemen's ballots were included.

Meantime, election ballots were under guard on orders from Atty. Gen. Grover C. Richmond Jr., a Democrat, who said:

"This is a protective procedure. They are in custody so that they cannot be tampered with."

Richmond ordered county prosecutors—most of them Republican—to get police guards for ballot boxes and voting machines wherever possible and other guards where officers were not available.

"I have received complete cooperation," he said. Democratic leaders were rechecking local election returns throughout the day in the hope of turning up more returns for Howell, but they were making no claims.

Howell, a congressman, heard some Democratic reports come in and then told newsmen:

"I will not concede defeat. I expect our people to be through with their reports by tomorrow morning and, when I have looked at them, I will make a decision then."

He raised anew the prospect of a recount, but added that it might cost more money than he and the State Democratic Committee could afford.

However, Howell said "I have been given assurance from the national committee that it will help if necessary."

Case himself has made no comment as the vote revisions continue, but his campaign manager, Kenneth Perry, claimed victory Wednesday night.

WALEN MINERS ON "STAY DOWN" STRIKE ABERDARE, Wales (AP)—Eight coal miners Thursday went on a "stay down" strike underground.

Three hundred miners who came to the surface supported them by refusing to work and forced the colliery to shut down.

Well supplied with food, the strikers said they would not come up until the general manager of the government-operated mine was transferred.

Union leaders went down in the pit and tried to persuade them to press their grievances through normal channels.

The strikers wouldn't budge and said they were quite happy to stay below until their demand is met.

Will Back Ike When They Think He's Right

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democrats prepared Thursday to take the helm in both houses of Congress, and spoke of cooperating with President Eisenhower when they consider him right.

Although there has been some talk they might pass up the Senate command—theirs to take by the narrowest of margins—that talk was swamped in statements of several top Democrats that they owe it to the people to take the responsibility.

Such men as Sens. George and Russell of Georgia, and Gore of Tennessee spoke out positively in favor of organizing the Senate as well as the House. The Democrats passed up a similar opportunity last year when the Republican-Democratic division was almost even.

Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, slated to be the Senate majority leader, reserved his comment.

At the same time, Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) talked cheerfully of switching from majority to minority leader next January, if the Republicans want him to continue to be their chieftain.

The Democrats nosed into a position for Senate control early Thursday with announcement of the election of Richard L. Neuberger, a 41-year-old author, the Oregon Senate seat held for a decade by Republican Guy Cordon.

Neuberger's margin was thin as a wafer, however, and conceivably could be upset by recounts. The final, official report from Oregon isn't expected until about Dec. 1.

Neuberger, a prolific writer for regional and national publications and a persistent advocate of public power for the Pacific Northwest, gave the Democrats a total of 48 seats in the Senate. That's just half the Senate membership of 96 but Sen. Wayne Morse (Ind-Ore) reaffirmed that he will vote with the Democrats when it comes time to organize the Senate in January.

There was no question about the overturn in the House. The Democrats gained solidly there and elected 232 representatives to 203 for the Republicans.

Practically speaking, it has been a coalition of conservative Democrats and Republicans who have had the most say about legislation in the 83rd Congress and the same situation should continue the next two years in the 84th.

The President, Lyndon Johnson and House Speaker-to-be Sam Rayburn all have now announced attitudes of working together on the basis of what is good for the country.

Eisenhower took his stand at his Wednesday news conference, and Rayburn and Johnson said Democrats would stand back of the President when they thought he was right, oppose him when they thought he was wrong.

AN UNREALISTIC PLAN

India's revulsion over the prospect of a war fought with annihilating nuclear weapons is shared by all men of good will. But India's proposal for an arms truce pending conclusion of a disarmament treaty is totally unrealistic, and has been properly rejected in the United Nations.

The Indian plan would not even have allowed use of A- or H-bombs to repel aggression. The Indian representatives sought complete prohibition of such weapons.

The flaw in this arrangement should be obvious, even to the Indians. Not the use, but the threat, of atomic weapons by the United States is acknowledged to be a principal deterrent to Soviet aggression.

That threat strikes home in the Kremlin only because of the superiority we have long enjoyed over Russia both in numbers and kinds of nuclear weapons. Should we at any time interrupt the production that is giving us this margin, then our leverage for peace—and the whole West's—would quickly be weakened.

The recent disclosure that Russia is conducting another series of atomic tests is a pointed reminder that Soviet leaders have been bending all effort to close that gap.

One might argue that an armament truce would also interrupt Russian production. But that presupposes an ironclad system of arms inspection that would allow international representatives to check on output within the Soviet Union. The Russians have refused to countenance such a system in any and all disarmament discussions.

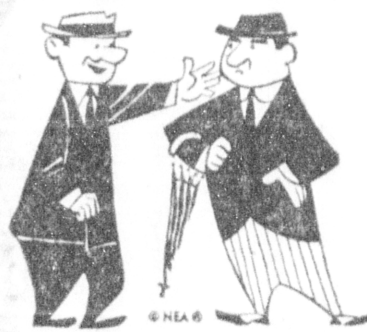

So the only truce Russia would agree to would be one weak on inspection, which would leave the Communists relatively free to go on closing the atomic gap, while our great deterrent force would be frozen.

Furthermore, such a truce would ignore the fact that Russia possesses a great preponderance of strength in land armies. These presumably would be held in being despite the arms ban, and would contribute heavily to a shift of power toward the Soviet orbit.

Any arms plan, whether intermediate truce or permanent disarmament treaty, can have no meaning whatsoever without adequate enforcement provisions. The Indians have taken part in world councils long enough now to appreciate that a proposal offered without those checks is wasted breath.

If India's leaders ever have any realistic moments, they must have some understanding of how fortunate they are that America does not indeed enjoy so marked an advantage in nuclear armament. For otherwise they might long since have found the unwelcome Red visitor on their doorstep.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (P)—Some ambitious young men anxious to get ahead in life are afraid today to marry. Why? Because they are afraid the romantic bride of their dreams may become a frowsy-haired nightmare who will later hamper the progress of their careers.

In picking executives many corporations weigh not only the kind of work a man does, but the kind of wife he goes home to. Will she be a credit to the firm, or a social liability? Does she have it in her to become what industrial leaders now look for in the mates of their potential executives — the "ideal corporate wife?"

"My girl suits me all right now," said a young bachelor. "But will she be able to grow up with me as I move ahead in the world? Will she, 25 years from now, be the kind of wife my corporation wants me to have?"

What can this young go-getter do? Well, frankly, let's face it: It is impossible to marry a girl of 20 or 25 years and be certain that at 45 or 50 she will have matured into "the ideal corporate wife."

Is there any solution then? Yes. One could wait until he had become an executive and then marry a woman pleasing to the chairman of the board. But most men don't want to postpone the pleasures of home cooking, etc., for 25 years.

An even better way is to switch one's life goals now. Suppose you are the ambitious young man. Instead of worrying about selecting an ideal corporate wife, why not concentrate instead on becoming "the ideal corporate husband" yourself?

Here's what you do. Pick a clean-cut, hard-working career girl with a good job and a big future with a growing corporation. Marry her. Then help her climb step by step to the top.

Here's how:

1. Keep her morale up by praising her at all times. Don't be a knocker.

2. Show an interest in her job, but don't tell her how to run it.

3. If her job requires that she move to another city, don't cry. Chop up boy. Just move with her.

4. Don't make scenes if she has to work late at the office, and don't get jealous if she has a male secretary. Send him a birthday card. Send him two, and make a real friend.

5. Avoid getting out of touch with things just because you spend most of your time at home watching television.

6. Don't be penny wise and pound foolish about your clothing. Buy expensive suits. Remember, it is important to your wife's career that you look neat and well-dressed at all times.

7. Drink only to be social. Never show up drunk with a blonde at night clubs patronized by members of your wife's corporation. You'd be surprised how many $50,000-a-year tattletales there are in America.

8. When invited to the home of your wife's boss for dinner, remember they are looking you over to see if she married the right kind of guy. Be pleasant but reserved in a gentlemanly way.

In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (P)—The movie whirl—
Humphrey Bogart is back at his old stand with a gun in his hand. Back in 1936, he made his debut as a tough guy in "Petra Forest" (he had appeared in films earlier, but as a juvenile). He played the desperado Duke Mantle, who took over and terrorized the inhabitants of a roadside cafe.

Today he's playing an escaped convict who bullies a suburban family in "The Desperate Hours." Some progress, huh? I told him I didn't think so.

This brought out the Duke Mantle in him. He has a knack of adopting the character he is playing at the time. When he was doing "Sabrina," he was every bit the witty, dapper business executive he was playing. Now he was a stubble-faced, scarred convict and he acted the part.

"Now isn't that a bright remark?" he remonstrated. "You reporters are all alike—always go for the obvious!"

After he played a scene of menacing one of the children in the family, he returned with this observation: "Say a guy starts out from New York, goes around the world and comes back to New York. You'd say he was back in the same place."
"Well, I'm like that guy who went around the world. I may be back in the same place. But I've been somewhere!"

He added that there was a slight difference between the two jobs. He was paid $500 a week for "Petra Forest." Today he earns $250,000 per picture.

Budget Cuts—Hound Dogs—Unkindest Cut of All
Melting Pot—Mr. WHO?—FDR's Son John

By PETER EDSON

NEA Food and Markets Editor
WASHINGTON (NEA)—NEA is how Budget Director Rowland Hughes sums up the effects of the Eisenhower administration's $14 billion cuts on Federal Government expenditures since Inauguration day, 1953, as they affect the average individual.

"On a per capita basis," says Hughes, "it means that we have reduced expenditures from the $486 per person proposed for last year by the past administration to $390 per person this year. This is an expenditure reduction of $96 a year for each man, woman and child in the nation, or about $400 for an average family."

DEFENSE Secretary Charles E. Wilson isn't too bitter, and secretly he may be getting quite a kick out of the furor caused by his hound-dog speech in Detroit.

He has been asking for the originals of political cartoons that lampooned his remark. One cartoonist who obliged autographed his drawing: "From one hound dog to another" before sending it on. Wilson got a good laugh out of the crack.

UNKINDEST CUT of the week in Washington is a reference to ex-Gov. Harold Stassen of Minnesota, now chief dispenser of American aid to foreign governments as "the oldest youth in America." His work was described by an obviously unsympathetic critic as "buying enemies and alienating friends." He was described as "doing quite well at it."

ASSISTANT SECRETARY of Labor Rocco C. Siciliano, whose father was born in Italy, doesn't like the description of America as "the melting pot."

"America has not melted and molded all the peoples and cultures which have come to it into any homogeneous, dull, gray, mediocre standard type," says Siciliano.

"First generation Americans recall their European roots only with embarrassment," he adds. "For the second generation, the fact of having a European-born grandfather is a matter of indifference. Only the third generation considers itself sufficiently settled and a part of this western world so that it can show a proper pride in the roots which extend back to older cultures."

DAVID MCKENDREE KEY, assistant secretary of state in charge of United Nations Affairs, tells this story to prove his belief that the World Health Organization—WHO—is doing a good job.

An Indian doctor working on malaria control in a remote Thailand village asked a local tribal head man a few questions:

Had he heard of Nehru? "No."

Had he heard of President Eisenhower? "No."

Had he heard of the United States? "No."

Had he heard of WHO?

"Oh yes, Mr. Who is man who sprayed my house, and we have had no more sick babies. Very good man, Mr. WHO."

JOHN ROOSEVELT, Republican son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, has all the answers figured out for getting along with his famous Democratic mother, brothers and sister.

"I live at Hyde Park," says young John. "My mother's house is very near. I have a couple of favorite Democrats in the family, and I hope they have one favorite Republican."

When reminded that his sister Anna had commented there was always one political black sheep in the Roosevelt fold, John recalled that his mother was given in marriage by her uncle, Theodore Roosevelt. "She changed from the party of her uncle," says John. "I am just returning to the fold."

Though young John now considers himself a full-fledged Republican, he won't comment on any issues of his father's administration.

"I don't consider it proper for me to discuss any of my father's actions," he says. "I will only discuss the Democratic party of Harry Truman."

man, Adlai Stevenson and the ADA (Americans for Democratic Action), which is a far cry from the Democratic party of my father.

"As long as the Democratic Party is under the control of Truman, Stevenson and the ADA, I will vote Republican," again and again and again."

The youngest Roosevelt told the National Press Club in Washington that he had no plans to become a candidate for public office now.

"But I don't take myself out of the possibility of running for public office at some time."

John Roosevelt served as vice-chairman of the Citizens for Eisenhower in this year's campaign. As for taking an appointive office in this administration, he says, "I haven't been offered one."

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (P)—At this time, when politicians begin putting their own interpretations on Tuesday's elections, one conclusion is obvious and a second one seems so.

1. It was a Republican defeat. The voters showed their dissatisfaction with Republican control of Congress by turning the House and perhaps the Senate over to the Democrats. The final senate result may not be known until after some recounting.

2. The extraordinary narrowness of the margin was a pretty good sign the great majority of voters are not deeply disturbed by the state of the nation.

If the people—as a whole—had been fear-ridden or in distress they would have expressed their misgivings or anger by giving the Democrats an overwhelming victory to change the direction. This they did not do.

On the other hand, if they had been extremely enthusiastic about the Republican performance of the past two years, it seems reasonable to believe they would have increased the GOP control of Congress. They did the reverse.

The amazingly even division of voters' thinking was best reflected in the Senate races where, in Oregon, Ohio and New Jersey, only a few thousand votes separated the candidates although roughly five million votes were cast in the three states.

And the Democrats achieved no smashing majority in capturing control of the House over President Eisenhower's last-minute plea to keep the Republicans in charge.

The Republicans may try to console themselves by recalling that for half a century—with one exception, 1894—the party in control of Congress has lost some seats in the mid-term elections.

It's possible that Eisenhower's last-minute efforts for the Republicans saved them from a worse setback. Or the voters may have made up their minds before he ever got neck-deep into the campaign.

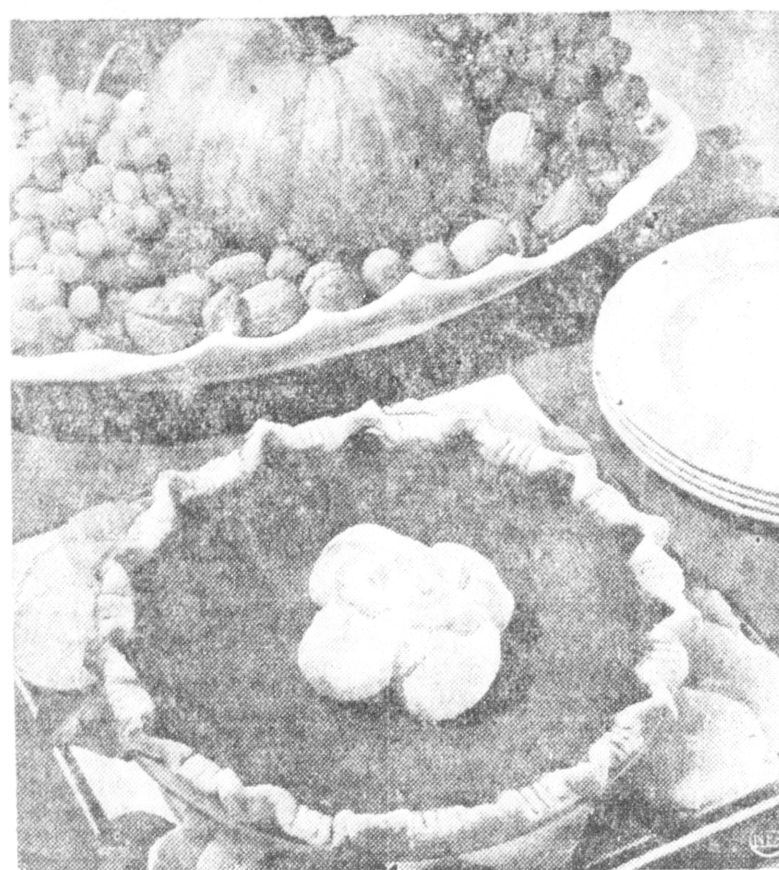

LAST SURVIVOR

Yank in Florida Contributes
A New Pumpkin Pie Recipe

SOMETHING DIFFERENT for Thanksgiving — Florida orange pumpkin pie.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

When a Yankee cook is transplanted to the Florida citrus belt, flavorful things can happen.

Mrs. L. G. MacDowell of Lakeland, Florida, is a transplanted Yankee. Nevertheless, she still wants lots of pumpkin pie for Thanksgiving. So to her northern pumpkin pie recipe she adds Florida orange juice and rind. The result is delicious.

Florida Orange Pumpkin Pie
(Yield: 1 9-inch pie)

One and three-quarters cups canned pumpkin, 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1/2 cup granulated sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 teaspoons ginger, 1-16 teaspoon cloves, 1 tablespoon unsulphured molasses, 1 tablespoon grated orange rind, 3/4 cup orange juice, 1/2 cup evaporated milk, 3 eggs, slightly beaten, 1 9-inch unbaked pastry shell.

Combine pumpkin, sugar, salt, spices, unsulphured molasses, orange rind, orange juice and evaporated milk. Stir in eggs; turn into pastry shell. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) 15 minutes; reduce heat to moderate (350 degrees F.) and bake 35 minutes longer, or until tip of knife inserted in center comes out clean.

If you prefer a light dessert to end the Thanksgiving feast, Mrs.

MacDowell has a refreshing answer.

Florida Grapefruit Jubilee
(Yield: 6 servings)

One can (16 ounces) Bing cherries, pitted, 1/4 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 2 teaspoons rum flavoring, 3 grapefruit.

Drain cherries. Measure liquid; add enough water to make 1 cup. Combine with sugar and cinnamon in saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Simmer 5 minutes. Remove from heat; stir in cherries and flavoring; chill.

To prepare grapefruit halves, cut fruit in half; remove core. Cut around each section, loosening fruit from membrane. Do not cut around entire outer edge of fruit. When ready to serve, fill centers with chilled cherry mixture.

THANKSGIVING DINNER: Black bean soup with lemon slices, roasted stuffed fryer-broiler chickens, giblet gravy, cranberry jelly, whipped potatoes, canned all-green asparagus, creamed white onions, assorted rolls, butter or margarine, green pepper, shredded cabbage and lettuce salad, French dressing, Florida orange pumpkin pie, cider, coffee, tea, milk, nuts and raisins.

Bed Rest Still Best Remedy
For the Pesky Common Cold

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

It is particularly distressing to see a small infant with that pesky nuisance, the common cold. They always seem so extremely uncomfortable and as though their feelings were hurt by this sign of cruelty in the world.

There are some questions about colds which bear particularly on children. Mrs. L. asks whether it is true that babies cannot catch cold unless they get the germ from another person. The answer is that it is almost certainly true, since colds are caused by viruses which are spread from person to person. Certainly someone with a cold should stay away from babies who are just as susceptible to catching cold as the rest of us.

MRS. H. SAYS that she has trouble with her children getting colds and that she does not like to give them the mycin drugs or penicillin. There is indeed little reason to feel that penicillin or the mycin drugs are of much value in uncomplicated common colds, since they apparently do not act on the responsible virus. These preparations should probably be held for more serious illnesses.

NEARLY EVERY YEAR our hopes are raised by the announcement of at least one new wonder cure for colds. Year after year these hopes are dashed. In spite of the enormous number of "cold cures" on the market, the statement "that no substances or combination of substances available at present can be relied on to prevent or cure the common cold" still holds good.

Nevertheless, nose drops, inhalants, liquid and solid medicines, gargles, special diets, lemon cures and innumerable treatments will be used by thousands.

THE SUPPLY of moisture to the nose and throat by means of steam inhalations is probably of some help.

GIANT RADISH ALMOST ENOUGH FOR CAFETERIA

Jack raised his beanstalk, and Ellis Brant, principal of the Lincoln elementary school, produced a radish in his garden that would be considerably more than a dainty mouthful. The big radish pulled from the Brant garden at 1081 South Diamond street, weighed a healthy four and three-quarters pounds.

The huge white Iceberg radish measured nine inches not counting the tail-like root, and was 15 inches in circumference.

Principal Brant said the radish came up as a volunteer in his garden, in a spot where ordinary sized vegetables were raised last spring.

Interpreting The News

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst

There have been strong indications for several years that the extremist blocs at both ends of the American political axis have been losing strength to the center.

For a long time congressional action has been dependent on the coalition votes of inter-party blocs. In 1952 the Republicans gained control of both houses by tiny margins. Now the Democrats have done the same.

These narrow divisions in Congress, however, since they are the sum total of individual and only slightly related local election contests, are less indicative than the extreme closeness of the decisions in so many of the individual contests themselves.

Elections have been decided by mere handfuls of votes in numerous areas.

One is almost tempted to say that no greater benefit could come to American politics than to keep the politicians of both parties constantly aware that they are walking a tight-rope, subject to ruin by the least bobble. That is a fundamental of the two-party system which has not always worked because of violent swings in public sentiment from time to time, leading to party overconfidence and laxness in government.

But there are dangers, too, when party control of government is so narrow that it has no real mandate, and responsibility is too much divided. It leads to indecision just as surely as does that bane of European political systems, a superabundance of parties. It also leads to buck passing. When there is fault in government, it leads to difficulty for the public in placing the blame.

President Eisenhower's quick decision to get to work with the new leaders of Congress in order to get the business of the country done indicate that he is taking his new difficulties philosophically. In one respect, the situation gives him an opportunity to prove whether he is a great President. It puts upon him and his administration the responsibility of presenting to Congress only such proposals as have been worked out so carefully that their need is apparent. It places upon Democratic leaders the responsibility for seeing to it that no truly beneficial legislation falls victim to partisan expediency.

Hunters Bring Back Five Deer From Ontario

A party of 14 Jacksonville, Woodson, and Winchester residents arrived home Wednesday night from a 10 days' hunting trip near Nester Falls, Ontario, bringing five deer which were slain by the hunters. Six of the men in the party had licenses, and five got their deer.

Those making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. George Thies and Albert Armitage of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bourn, son Donald and Merle Hillwell of Winchester, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thies and son Danny, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Merginson, son John and Kenneth Winter, all of Woodson.

The party stayed at Crow Lake Lodge, operated by Ted Labell. The hunters reported that the temperature was 2 degrees below zero on Saturday, Oct. 30. They were forced to halt hunting last Sunday on account of driving snow. About four inches of snow covered the earth by the time they left the hunting camp.

Three bucks brought back by the hunters averaged 170 pounds. The two does averaged 150 pounds.

The new chairman, Paul Phelps, was introduced and the following awards were made: bobcat, Donald Patterson and Steve McCarty; wolf award, Charles Darwent and the lion award went to George Campbell, Bucky Marsh and Tom Wicks.

An impressive candlelight Webster ceremony was held for Scouts Bob Essex, Richard Sweeney, Freddy Busche and Bucky Marsh.

Rushville Physician, 87, 'Doctor Of Year'

CHICAGO—An 87-year old country family doctor, who with 64 years of medical practice behind him still makes midnight calls to administer to the needs of his patients, has been selected as the Illinois General Practitioner for 1955.

Dr. Henry Orson Munson, of Rushville, seat of Schuyler County, in Western Illinois, has been chosen by the Illinois State Medical Society for this signal honor, according to an announcement by Dr. Harold M. Camp of Monmouth, secretary of the society.

Dr. Munson, age notwithstanding, is president of the Schuyler County Medical Society, Methodist Church Sunday School superintendent and active Rotarian.

A certificate and medal, emblematic of the selection, will be presented to the veteran family doctor at an annual meeting of the Illinois State Medical Society in May. His name will be submitted to the American Medical Association as a candidate for the national award, to be made in December.

Dr. Munson, son of George and Harriette (Wetmore) Munson, was born near Madrid, N. Y. August 14, 1867. He came from pioneer stock, his family name in America being traced back to 1637 when one of his English forbears settled in New England.

DR. HENRY O. MUNSON

Mother Was Nurse

The Munsons followed the population movement westward. Thus, Dr. Munson, as a boy, came to Grinnell, Ia., where he worked on a farm and attended grade and high schools and Grinnell College. At 18, his parents moved to a sparsely settled section of South Dakota. There, his mother, a practical nurse, was called upon to administer to the ailing and to serve as a midwife on many occasions.

Spurred by the need for medical care in remote areas and by the enthusiasm of his mother to serve humanity, the farm boy went to Chicago where he entered Hahnemann Medical School. He worked his way through that school and received his degree of doctor of medicine, March 21, 1890.

Dr. Munson began practice at Warrens Mill, Wis., site of a sawmill. Accidents were frequent in those days, and the fledgling doctor was given many opportunities to perform surgery. Meanwhile, with his own hands he built a four-room bungalow, to which he brought his bride, Miss Jennie Cleary of Princeton, Mo., whom he married on Christmas day in 1890. Mrs. Munson died in 1931.

In 1893, Dr. Munson moved to Astoria, Ill., and on January 18, 1895, he took up practice in Rushville. He has served that area ever since.

First Patient Now 80

Among his first patients in Rushville was Miss Lurella Logsdon, Miss Logsdon, 80, is still being attended by Dr. Munson. The first baby he delivered in that town is now a nurse and the wife of a Chicago physician.

In 1897, Dr. Munson took a post-graduate course in London. There he had his introduction to a new fangled contraption, the "horseless buggy." At the 1901 exposition in Buffalo, he spent most of his time in the building where automobiles were on display.

Upon his return home, and being mechanically-minded, he decided to build a car of his own. He bought a motor and parts, and eventually constructed an automobile which ran.

Delivers 4,000 Babies

Dr. Munson has answered calls from as far away as 85 miles. He has operated on his patients in hospitals in Beardstown, Macomb, Canton and Monmouth, the latter 60 miles away. Many "kitchen surgeries" were performed in emergency situations. He has delivered about 4,000 babies. Last week, he answered a call at 11 o'clock at night and stayed with his patient for three hours until a crisis was passed.

He has served as president or secretary of the Schuyler County Medical Society on and off, and has been president for the last six years. The 50-year member emblem of the Illinois State Medical Society was presented to him in 1940.

During World War I, Munson served in France as a captain in the Medical Corps of the Army. In World War II, because of age, he had to be content to be medical examiner in his county for the Selective Service System, working without pay.

He is a member of the First Methodist Church in Rushville, and since 1917 has been superintendent of the Sunday school. He has been charge lay leader for the last 20 years. He is also trustee of Church's home for the aged, at Quincy, Ill.

He joined the Rotary Club in Rushville shortly after its organization in 1937 and holds a 100 per cent attendance record. He served as county coroner in 1928-1932. His dairy farm gets his active attention.

Dr. Munson has three daughters with whom he makes his home in Rushville: Mrs. Marian Smith of Gainesville, Fla., and Mrs. Harriette Klatt of Baltimore.

'Local Schools To Lose Large Sums Of Money,' Mann

The P. T. A. Council for School District 117 met in the high school on Wednesday, November 3, with Mrs. Jack R. Hartong, president presiding. The council is composed of the president and the building principals and one other representative from each local P. T. A.

Mrs. Dick Minor, president of the Franklin P. T. A., reported that the district convention will be held in Jacksonville next fall.

Since the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers and the Illinois Education Association have designated November at "School Crisis Study Month" the P. T. A. Council has requested each local P. T. A. to study the financial problems facing the schools. The council voted to circulate a petition urging the Governor and the General Assembly to consider promptly and to provide constructive legislation for:

a. Substantial increase in state aid to the common schools. b. Emergency state aid for the construction of school buildings in the areas of greatest need. c. Provision for more fair, equitable, and adequate assessment of properties for local taxation purposes.

"The state failed to appropriate enough money to pay all school claims in full and the local schools will lose rather large sums of money in the next two years unless much greater appropriations are made for the next biennium," Supt. J. A. Mann told the group. Should the present biennial appropriation of $140,000,000 for the Common School Fund be continued with the $173 equalization base and the qualifying tax rate unchanged, it is probable that payments will be made of not more than 80 per cent of claims beginning January 1956 and 70 per cent in January, 1957. Based on a state claim of approximately $300,000, this would mean a loss of $60,000 in 1956 and $90,000 or more in 1957 to the local school district. If this should happen, the local tax rate would have to be raised to offset the loss or educational services would have to be reduced, according to Mann.

Mrs. George Bischoff, District 13 publicity director of Arenzville, was present at the meeting.

GLIDER FOR SALE

DAYTON, Ohio. (P)—The Air Force experimental glider XG-18 is as big as a house. And that's probably what it will wind up as. It weighs 43 tons, has a 72-foot wing spread and a 39-foot body, comfortably seating 48 fully equipped troops. But the Air Force found only a four-engine plane could haul it into the sky—so it's on the auction block.

GONE WITH THE WIND

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (P)—Businessmen of suburban Standale launched 200 toy balloons, each carrying a prize to its finder. A few days later they received a postcard from Mrs. R. Carl Pencil, of Bedford, Pa., who said she had found one of the balloons. Even though she's slightly out of the trading area, Mrs. Pencil will get her prize.

REFRESHER COURSE

DECATUR, Ill. (P)—Among the 30 future mothers who showed up at St. Mary's hospital for the six weekly sessions designed to help them cope with the problems of pregnancy was a registered nurse, a former member of the hospital staff. "I could learn something, too," she said.

Spanish moss is not a true moss, but a flowering plant belonging to the pineapple family.

LUCILLE CRUM

WHITE HALL—Mr. and Mrs. Gano Crum, White Hall route two, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Lucille, to James Grizzle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Grizzle, also of White Hall route two.

Miss Crum is a graduate of the White Hall high school with the class of 1934. She is now employed at the Franklin Life Insurance company in Springfield.

Mr. Grizzle graduated with the same class and is now a student at the Illinois State Normal University at Normal where he is majoring in agriculture.

The young couple plan a wedding during the Christmas holidays.

White Hall Has 150 Children in Halloween Parade

WHITE HALL—One hundred and fifty children took part in the Halloween parade, sponsored by the Modern Woodmen of America Junior Division, on Thursday night.

Mrs. Doris Elliott, Junior Director, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Search and Dorothy M. Young served as judges for the best costumes in the parade. Favors of key chains and balloons were given out and ice cream bars served as the end of the parade.

The "Witch Wagon" was again in evidence and each child's name was put in a container and those drawn out, when found to be at their home when the Witch Wagon arrived were given prizes as follows: first, Pamela Spencer, a pen and pencil set; second, Johnnie Anthony, game chest; third, Carol McEvers, six inch world globe; fourth, George Vinyard, billfold, and fifth, Cynthia Holmes, a portfolio.

Pat Blake, drum major, led the drum and bugle corps of children which was a project of the late Ray Sadler.

A car containing members of the Senior group of M. W. A. members included Roy Guls, John Stout, Albert Nash, William Nagle, and Gomer Woods was also in the parade.

Ribbons awarded for the five best dressed in the parade were given to Sue Suttles, Carol McEvers and Grenda Barrow, for the family group; second, Minnie and Mickey Mouse to Danny Matthews and Sherry Settles; third to Judy Harp, dressed as a pumpkin; fourth the ghost family made up of Polly Ott, George Vinyard, Linda and Alberta Savage and fifth to the hunters and their dogs, LaVerne Powell and Edith Holley.

WHERE'S THE FIRE

WAYNESBORO, Va. (P)—Raymond T. Hunter was serving as a member of a jury when the procedure was interrupted by sirens and clanging fire engines. Police Sgt. M. N. Hughes was called out but returned shortly to inform the court of the location of the fire.

Judge C. G. Quesenberry recessed court—it was Hunter's home burning.

Suit Against Majors Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Filing of a multimillion dollar damage suit against major league baseball was delayed indefinitely Thursday.

The suit has been threatened by Frank Lawrence, owner of the Portsmouth, Va., club in the Piedmont League, on ground he has been damaged through "invasion" of minor league territory by radio and television accounts of major league games.

Lawrence had said his suit would be filed by Nov. 1. But Atty. James P. McGranery, who is handling the case, said he was not ready to act yet.

Lawrence did not give the exact figure involved in the claim, but said that a guess of 50 million would not be far wrong.

SPORTS TRAIL

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK (AP)—Ron and Don sound like the names of a couple of end men in a minstrel show, and the Ron and Don we have in mind are end men, alright, although as far as we know they can't twang a guitar or carry a tune in a wheelbarrow.

They are Ron Beagle of Navy and Don Hollender of Army, and if we can believe what we hear about them all other football ends are wizened, xylophone-rubbed specimens who couldn't carry their shoes, to coin a phrase.

You'd think you were reading these "look one of your pals and have no more trouble with my hair—signed, Beagle" ads to pursue the endorsements of these rival wingmen who will present an opportunity for odious comparison when the service schools meet in Philadelphia Nov. 27.

Even Earl Black, usually a cautious man with a word of praise until a season is completed, pulls out all stops in Auding Hollender and Eddie Erdelatz, who says "anything an end should do, Beagle can do" is just echoing opinions of others concerning his star wingman.

"Beagle is the finest end we've played against this year," says Terry Brennan of Notre Dame.

"He's the best college end I've seen in a long time," says Tom Hamilton of Pitt.

Maybe the boys should quit now while they're ahead.

Seriously, we've seen Hollender in person and Beagle via the movies, and we don't hesitate to say they live up to the blarney.

Hollender is a rangy, agile fellow who plays with an intriguing twist. He gives the impression that throwing a block that would flatten an oak tree or nailing a tackler so hard his head and his feet change places is more fun than anything else in the world.

On one play against Columbia he blocked a man 40 yards down the field to enable a ball carrier to cross the goal, and when the play was called back he sprinted 40 yards down the other side of the field to take a pass on the next play.

He's tireless, and the same can be said of his Middle counterpart, the aptly-named Beagle. He's a 60-minute man, going the distance in three of the Navy games to date.

John Cox, who tells the world about sports happenings at Annapolis, fairly sputters in excitement when discussing the big end.

"He's rated better on defense than on offense," Cox says, "but he's caught 19 passes, for 233 yards, so he can't be too bad offensively."

The Army-Navy game is shaping up as a rugged affair, and Saturday, when Navy meets Duke, there will be an opportunity for another of those odious comparisons. Army defeated Duke 28-14.

The only other common foe to date is Dartmouth, whipped by Navy 42-7 and swamped by Army 60-6, but Navy has yet to meet Columbia, beaten by Army 67-12, and Army is booked against Penn, a 52-6 victim of Navy.

It's the wingmen we will be watching Nov. 27, just to see how Ron and Don stack up. Trying to find out which end is up, you might say.

'Cats' Breeze To 6th Straight Win At Rio

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—The Peoria Caterpillars, representing the United States in the World Basketball Tournament, breezed to their sixth straight victory without defeat Thursday with a 74-30 romp over Israel.

Warming up for Friday's tale clash against Brazil, also unbeaten, the U. S. team ran up a 36-20 lead at halftime and kept pulling away in the second half even though Coach Warren Womble used every man on the bench. During one seven-minute period, the Caterpillars poured in 20 points to Israel's 4.

BRITISH COMMONWEALTH MINISTERS TO MEET

LONDON (AP)—British Commonwealth prime ministers will meet here Jan. 31 to consider, among other things, whether East-West tensions have eased enough to make profitable a high-level conference with Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov.

Prime Minister Churchill announced the call for the Commonwealth gathering in the House of Commons Thursday.

The Commonwealth nations are Australia, Britain, Canada, Ceylon, South Africa and the new Central India, New Zealand, Pakistan, South Africa and the new Central African Federation of the Rhodesias and Nyassaland.

Big 12 Title At Stake As Downstate Football Enters Final Rounds

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Crucial tilts in tight pennant races share the downstate prep football spotlight this weekend with attempts to extend unspotted records like those of Centralia, Sterling and Shelbyville.

The Big 12's hard fought crown tussle features a Friday clash between Champaign and Urbana while in the Northwest Conference Moline takes on East Moline Champaign—like Decatur, Peoria Manual and Peoria Central—is unbeaten in the Big 12. Urbana has lost only to Decatur.

Moline, despite a record of only three wins in seven outings, goes to East Moline pretty well healed as a Northwest Conference title contender. Two of Moline's three 7-7 ties were with league opponents. The lone loss was to an outside opponent.

Centralia's Orphans shoot for their eighth win in a row Friday against Mount Vernon. The Orphans, with a whirlwind attack paced by tailback Bobby Joe Mason, can clinch at least a tie for the South Seven flag by winning Mount Vernon has won only twice.

Sterling and Shelbyville also reach for their eighth victories of the season on Friday. Sterling's task is to dispose of strong Mendota, beaten only once. Shelbyville is threatened by Kincaid, a Mid-state Conference opponent that bowed only to Hillsboro and was bested by Taylorville. Shelbyville is assured of its first league championship.

Evansville and New Trier shoot for the Chicago area's Suburban League title in a contest Saturday. Both have only a single loss.

The longest winning streak among the current prep powers—28 games won by East St. Louis—appears hardly threatened by Granite City, which has been successful only once this year.

Eastern State High School of Charleston is counted on to whip Longview and to extend its string of triumphs to eight. Longview is playing 11-man football for the first time this year.

Chenoo aims for its 26th straight over three campaigns in an encounter with Flanagan.

Macomb, Roxana, Onarga and Chillicothe "each shoot for eighth consecutive wins while Abingdon and Arcola seek their seventh decisions, all in Friday games.

Macomb entertains a Bushnell club that didn't taste defeat until last week. Roxana tackles Bethalto and Onarga clashes with dangerous Gilman club.

Alderman Sain Undecided About Baseball Plans

WALNUT RIDGE, Ark. (AP)—Alderman-elect Johnny Sain still is undecided about his future baseball plans.

The New York Yankee pitcher, who was one of six Walnut Ridge residents chosen in Tuesday's election, said Thursday "we'll just have to wait and see" about his off-mentioned retirement plans.

Sain owns a new car agency in the Walnut Ridge, this northeast Arkansas town, has been more or less a "spot" pitcher for the Yanks.

Veteran Scribe Picks Saturday's Winners

BY WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—A Brooklyn housewife, using the penny-minty-minty system, picked 15 winners in 15 games last week for first prize in a newspaper football contest.

Our intricate system of slide rules, crystal balls and tea leaves gave us 35 winners, 13 setbacks and a 729 average. Season's score: 234-98 for 73.

We bravely try again.

Ohio State over Pittsburgh: The longman ends for Adm. Tom Hamilton, who has done a great job. The Buckeyes have the stuff to stop Camy Salvaerra.

UCLA over Oregon: The nation's No. 1 team should win by three touchdowns.

Rice over Arkansas: Dick Moezle should prove the difference in handling the Razorbacks their first defeat.

Oklahoma at Iowa State: The Sooners, stung by the drop to third place in the poll, roll up a big score.

Purdue at Iowa: Stop Lenny Dawson's passes and Bill Murauskowski rips your middle—that's Purdue's success formula.

Southern California over Stanford: Stanford is the season's most baffling up-and-down team, but Southern Cal sends roses.

Chicago Paper Denies Writer Won't Appear

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Daily News Thursday denied claim of the Illinois State Athletic Commission that a News sports writer, who authored an "expose" series on alleged criminal influence in boxing, had exonerated the sport in Illinois or refused to appear before the commission.

The newspaper categorically denied a letter which Livingston Osborne, commission chairman, sent Truman J. Gibson, secretary of the International Boxing Club, concerning the series by writer Jack Mabley.

Gibson, in an earlier letter to Osborne, demanded the commission investigate Mabley's charge that Chicago "had a vital concern in the racket (boxing) in which Frankie Carbo was described as 'near'."

Osborne wrote Gibson that Mabley "admits me that he will not appear before an open meeting of the Illinois State Athletic Commission because he has no evidence or proof of anything wrong with boxing in Illinois."

The Daily News said Thursday Mabley did not say he would not appear before the commission. He said nothing could be told of an open hearing that had not already been printed in the Daily News.

A reporter does not wish to make the investigation field of official bodies such as the athletic commission, the reporter told Osborne.

Osborne said: "Can I state that you have no evidence of any wrongdoing in boxing in Illinois? Mabley's answer was 'No. You certainly can't prove it. It is not true. You may say that to date we have no presentable evidence of any wrongdoing by the present commission.'"

"Mr. Osborne did not say if there was any evidence of wrongdoing by the International Boxing Club."

3-I League Club Offers Tickets At 'Bargain Rate'

BURLINGTON, Iowa (AP)—The Burlington baseball club has decided to offer "bargain rate" advance season tickets to enable this city to stay in the Three I Baseball League next year.

The action was taken at a meeting of club stockholders Wednesday night.

Within the next 10 days, 6,000 season tickets will be offered at $10 each. Club directors said if all of them were sold Burlington will have enough money to operate in 1955. If not, refunds will be made and baseball here will be canceled next season.

SWIMMING COACH

NEW YORK (AP)—Dick Steadman, formerly assistant swimming coach at Yale, Thursday was named assistant swimming coach at Columbia.

Clay keeps soil fertile from season to season and is considered a necessary ingredient.

FAN BREEZES

BY BILL MERRIS

Jacksonville's gift to the major leagues, Luther "Dummy" Taylor, left this morning for Topeka, Kansas, where he will meet a couple of his "old time" ball playing friends. Dummy will join E. Mowrey, 85, and Ed Heck, 88, in Topeka and the three will journey to Winchester, Kansas, where they will celebrate Mowrey's Golden Wedding Anniversary.

The three played ball for Winchester in 1896 and are the only living members of that team. It was an independent club and all home town players except Dummy. The former New York Giants' 20-game winner was 15 at the time and this is where he got his start in baseball. Dummy tells us they had quite a team that year.

Roger Edward informed us he had rolled at Western and would be in school immediately after Thanksgiving vacation. The former J.H.S. star eager won't be eligible for varsity competition this year because of his short stay at Vanderbilt but he will play Junior Varsity ball.

Coach Al Miller received word early last week that Central College of Fayette, Missouri, was considering bringing its 100-piece band and some 300 students to the I-Central game Saturday night. Nothing definite has been heard since but they would certainly be a welcome addition to the West stands.

Caroline May See Limited Action Saturday

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Halibut, J. C. Caroline's much-discussed sore shoulder may get an important test Saturday as Illinois invades Michigan.

Coach Ray Elliot said Thursday the Illinois star may not do much more than punt against the Wolverines, but a decision on how much Caroline will play probably won't be made until game time.

Ill. Athletic Director Dong Mill on a speech at Springfield, Ill., Wednesday night reportedly said Caroline, the 6-foot, No. 1 rusher as a sophomore last season, may have a shoulder separation that could end his career.

Larry Mills said he was misquoted and actually said Caroline has a bad left shoulder from an injury in Illinois' sole victory over Syracuse Oct. 23 and it may not respond to treatment in time for him to play against Michigan.

X-rays earlier this week failed to disclose any separation or dislocation, according to the team trainer and doctor, who said they believed Caroline's ailment is an injured nerve.

Caroline, who missed the Purdue game last Saturday, has been in uniform this week but has had no contact work. Before the Purdue game, he said his shoulder hurt him, but that he could play if needed.

Caroline again participated in light Illinois signal drills Thursday as did guard Wally Vernasco, another injured player. The possibility that both will play, at least part time, seemed good.

Elliot said, after his afternoon's drill, he probably would use Caroline in "spot situations."

Canadian Church Conducts Survey On Sunday Sports

TORONTO (AP)—The Church of England in Canada, arch foe of commercial sports on Sunday, issued a report Thursday showing voters on its side.

The church said a summary of all votes taken in Ontario on the subject since 1950 showed 254,870 against Sunday sports and 223,055 in favor.

Commercial Sunday sports have been banned in Ontario since 1950. They are legal elsewhere in Canada except in certain towns.

FRENCH PLANES HUNT ALGERIAN REBELS

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP)—French fighter planes and tanks fired blindly into rocky Algerian mountains Thursday, probing for rebel bands playing hide and seek after starting a nationalist uprising.

The rebels struck fiercely Monday, surrounding towns, blowing bridges, severing telephone lines and setting up stone roadblocks. Tanks pushed through the roadblocks Thursday and reached the isolated towns.

The outbreaks were the first in previously quiet Algeria.

Connie Mack Signs Final Papers; Owners Meet Monday To Vote

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Chicagoan Arnold Johnson Thursday bought the Philadelphia Athletics for Kansas City. Connie Mack, 91-year-old founder of the American League club, signed the final paper from his sickbed.

Johnson announced at a news conference he had acquired the franchise for approximately $1 million dollars from Connie and his two sons, Roy and Earle. He said the grand old man of baseball would get $604,000, Roy and Earle $456,000 each.

The price of $1 million is reached by adding a $120,000 mortgage and other debts of approximately $800,000 to the price of the Mack stock. Johnson said one million more will be set aside to help build the last place Athletics into a first division team.

In Chicago, President Will Harbridge of the American League said Johnson had notified him by telephone. He said a meeting of club owners to act on the sale and transfer to Kansas City will be held Monday in New York. Six of the eight clubs must approve the switch. Johnson, who for months has waged an unrelenting campaign to bring major league baseball to Kansas City, concluded his deal with a shrunken Philadelphia group seeking to buy the team and keep it in this city cooled his heels in the lobby of Mack's apartment house.

Connie, who will be 92 next month, hasn't eaten a substantial meal since last Thursday. That was when American League clubowners gathered in New York and said no to an eight-man Philadelphia syndicate seeking to buy the A's and keep them here—the old master's fondest dream.

On the word of those who visited the apartment where the deal was sealed, Connie was shattered. His wife, Katherine, shielded him from reporters. Acting for him, she told newsmen:

Johnson offered too strong a proposition."

Johnson said in a statement: "All the stock of the Philadelphia American League baseball club held by Connie Mack has been purchased by me for $604,000, and I have entered into a contract to purchase all of the stock of Roy Mack and Earle Mack. All of the Macks have signed a letter to the approval of the transaction at the earliest possible date. Thereafter, the franchise will be moved to Kansas City."

The final sale of the A's to Johnson climaxed a chain of episodes that had most of the elements of theatrical merry-go-round.

It started late last summer when it became obvious the Macks couldn't carry on with a debt-ridden ball club. The American League met with Roy before the World Series and gave him 10 days to put his house in order. Harbridge called a meeting for Oct. 12 in Chicago to tackle the Philadelphia problem. At that meeting the league approved the sale of the club to Johnson for $3,375,000.

However, when Roy got back to Philadelphia, he denied he had agreed to sell to Johnson and entered into negotiations with a group of eight Philadelphia businessmen.

Several conferences later the Philadelphia group announced it had purchased control of the Athletics from the Mack family. Then came a week of reports of differences over the official contract of sale.

Harbridge called a league meeting in New York. The owners rejected the Philadelphia group without saying why.

Johnson reappeared. He had threatened to sue the Macks if the deal with the Philadelphia group went through. He came to Philadelphia again last weekend, and except for a flying trip home to vote on Tuesday, worked around the clock here to complete the sale.

PERSONAL INCOME UP

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Department of Commerce said Thursday that personal income moved up in September to an annual rate of 287½ billion dollars, compared with 285½ billions in August.

The September rate this year was about a quarter of a billion dollars lower than a year before.

The mercurial barometer is considered the most accurate type of barometer.

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—End Zigzag Nippokoj and guard Tom Williams will share Northwestern punting chores with halfback George Gondek in the Wisconsin game Saturday.

The two linemen were pressed in to punting duty Wednesday to take up the slack caused by injuries to backs Jim Tioglio and John Rearden.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—The Michigan football squad slopped through defensive and offensive drills on soggy turf Thursday in preparation for the Big Ten game with Illinois here Saturday.

Assistant Coach Pete Kenyon, who saw three Illinois games, warned the Wolverines, "The Illinois team has improved with each succeeding Saturday. They seriously believe they will upset someone along the way this season, and I agree."

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Notre Dame's Fighting Irish Thursday paused in preparations for Saturday's game with Pennsylvania to consult with tackle Frank Varrichione on his new daughter.

The Irish reviewed play assignments with emphasis on punts, punts returns, kickoffs and kickoff returns.

The baby was born to Mrs. Varrichione Wednesday.

Wild Waterfowl Increases Along River Valley

HAVANA, Ill. (AP)—Wild waterfowl in Illinois increased by about a half million in the last week, a State Natural History Survey scientist said Thursday.

Frank Billrose, survey biologist, said there are 993,000 ducks, 63,800 Canada geese and 6,900 blue and mallards in the state.

The bird is at its peak in the Illinois River Valley, with 600,000 ducks. By October, mallards are the largest group of birds in the state, numbering 555,000.

Most of the mallards in the Illinois River Valley, are south of Peoria, from Bannock to Brownlee. On the Mississippi, the bulk of them congregate near Grafton.

Billrose said George Arthur, another state biologist, counted the most geese at Horseshoe Lake in Alexander county where there were 35,000.

Mt. Vernon Kings' Player-Manager Robbery Suspect

MOUNT VERNON, Ill. (AP)—Lew (Zeke) Bekeza, player-manager of the Mount Vernon Kings, a professional baseball team, was arrested Wednesday for questioning in the armed holdup of a Centralia tavern and a Belleville restaurant.

Police Chief Vernon Plag said Bekeza signed a statement admitting the Centralia holdup but that no formal charges had been filed.

Queens Tavern in Centralia was robbed last Friday night by a bandit who took $2 from the bill fold of bartender Robert Goff and a reported $40 from the tavern cash register.

Pilag said Bekeza told him he got $17 in the holdup.

Bekeza is to be taken to Belleville today for questioning in the armed robbery of the Busy Bee Cafe in Belleville.

The Mount Vernon team Bekeza managed last season is a member of the Mississippi-Ohio-Valley baseball League, a class D organization before going to Mount Vernon. Bekeza was a catcher for the now disbanded Centralia team, also a MOV league member.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market tore loose with a bull market boom Thursday that sent it to a new 25-year high.

It was the second post-election rally of magnitude, and gains of $1 to $3 were common with some pushing on out to $6 in key areas of the market.

Trading was quite heavy at 3,140,000 shares, the fifth highest total of the year.

Wednesday, when the market made its best single day's gain of the last 15 years, the total came to 2,700,000 shares.

Thursday the market started out strong, broke through all resistance, and soared ahead to new peaks. The steels were among the leaders with substantial gains.

They had a lot of help and shared leadership at times with the motors, rubbers, oils, and railroads, and heavy gains were rolled up by mail order houses, farm implements, aircrafts, radio-televi-sions, coppers, a few chemicals, airlines, movie issues, and the building materials.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks stepped ahead $1.80 at $139.10, the highest point that the average has reached since Oct. 17, 1929, when it stood at $142.90.

Wednesday it was up $2.60. The all-time high for the average came Sept. 3, 1929, when it stood at $157.70.

Thursday the industrial component of the average was up $2.80 at a new high of $191.80. Railroads gained $1.50 at a new high of $191.80. Railroads gained $1.50 at a new high of $102.50, and utilities were up 40 cents at $64.30.

The American Stock Exchange was higher on heavy volume of 780,000 shares. That compares with 610,000 shares traded Wednesday.

New York Bond Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Railroads carried the corporate bond market higher Thursday but U. S. government obligations declined.

"Big bond" volume increased to $4,570,000 par value from $3,380,000 Wednesday. Trading centered on convertible and income bonds, which responded to the strong stock market. Investment quality corporates, however, were fairly steady.

BEAN PRICE DROPS AS GRAINS RISE

By LAWRENCE N. ELDRED
CHICAGO (AP)—Soybeans gave up as much as three cents a bushel Thursday but all grains except rye worked higher.

Helping wheat were some new business in flour and reports of delayed planting of parts of the 1955 crop because of wet soil in some areas and dryness in others.

A warning against storage of high-moisture soybeans led traders to believe there might be some loosening up of farm stocks soon, a change which could depress the cash market.

At the close wheat was 1 1/2-2 1/4 cents higher, corn 1 1/4-1 3/4 up, oats 1/2-3/4 higher, and rye 1/2 to 1 lower. Soybeans fell 1 1/4 to 3 cents but lard was unchanged to 35 cents a hundred pounds higher.

Heavy moisture during October prevented soybeans in many areas from drying normally. With a high proportion of them going into farm storage, the University of Illinois released a research report cautioning against storing for the long term any beans with a moisture content above 12 per cent.

Rain, snow and cold in much of the corn belt was thought by some traders to be retarding harvest operations.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Most butcher weight hogs sold from $18.50 to $19.50 with that price paid with considerable frequency. Sows took $15.75 to $16.25 in most sales, a few light ends getting up to $18.50. Clearance was good in all divisions.

Good to low-prime steers sold at $21.00 to $28.75 and good and choice heifers and mixed yearlings at $20.50 to $26.50. Veal calves topped at $24.00.

Receipts of cattle for public sale amounted to 3,000 head, and 400 calves and 1,500 sheep also were on hand.

Expect McCarthy To Be Out

Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) will be out as chairman of the Government Operations Committee and its Permanent Investigations Subcommittee, as expected, the Democrats organize the Senate. In line to replace him in both posts is Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.), ranking minority member in the present Congress.

Similarly, the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, headed by Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.), has devoted itself to Communist hunting. It has borne down particularly on what Jenner has called "interlocking subversion in government."

The future of this subcommittee, a unit of the Senate Judiciary Committee, is somewhat clouded. Sen. Kilgore (D-W.Va.) is in line for the chairmanship of the full Judiciary Committee and may take over direction of the subcommittee. If so, chances are that it will be less active.

Rep. Walter (D-Pa.), slated to succeed Rep. Velde (R-Ill.) as chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, has announced he will move to abolish it and transfer its functions to a subcommittee of the House Judiciary Committee.

A foretaste of what may be in store in the next Congress came from Sen. Olin Johnston (D-Sc.), who would replace Sen. Carlson (R-Kan.) as chairman of the Post Office and Civil Service Committee in a Democratic-controlled Senate.

He said he would insist on getting to the bottom of the Eisenhower employee security program under which the administration announced during the congressional campaign that 6,929 persons had been separated from the federal payroll.

POETRY IS FOR THE EARS

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa (AP)—Mrs. May Arbutnot, professor emerita at Western Reserve University, Cleveland, gave a teachers' meeting here this advice: "In the elementary schools, I think that poetry should be heard and not seen. If the children hear poetry first, it is much better and there is no need to terrorize them by demanding memory work."

1. The Western notes will be dispatched to Moscow about the last week of this month—or only three weeks before the French Parliament is due to debate ratification of the Paris agreements on West Germany, Dec. 14 to 17.

2. The West once again will spell out two tight conditions which Russia must fulfill before a new Big Four conference on Germany can be set up. The first is that Russia must agree in advance to free, supervised national elections in the Soviet zone of Germany so that an all-German government can be formed. The second is that Russia must act in advance to conclude a treaty of independence that will free and end the occupation of Austria.

NATIONALIST PLANES BEAT OFF RED FIGHTERS
TAIPEH, Formosa (Friday)—Nationalist planes beat off Red fighters, which attacked for the first time in the vest pocket war, and bombed menacing Communist positions near the Tachen Islands Thursday.

Air force headquarters said whether they were jets or propeller fighters — did not say — four times tried to check the raiders as they bore down on Tachen Island.

Once over Tachen, whose batteries have been shelling Yikiang-shan in the nearby Tachens some 200 miles north of Formosa, Nationalist planes again were intercepted.

Headquarters said all Nationalist planes returned to base. The number of planes involved on each side was not disclosed.

Widow Of Artist, Former Resident Of City, Dies

Mrs. Leona Dow Newell, 83, widow of Peter Newell, well known illustrator and author of children's books, died recently at her home at Mill Neck, N. Y., after a brief illness. Both she and her husband were former Jacksonville residents.

Her death recalled a romance of the past century, as Mr. and Mrs. Newell were married in Jacksonville in 1885. Peter Newell was a protégé of S. W. Nichols, who was first engaged in the photographic business and later was an owner of the Jacksonville Journal.

Mrs. Newell delighted in later years to tell stories of the struggles she and her artist husband had in the midwest before his work was recognized. She often recalled the time the minister came to their studio in Leona, N. J., and there was no fuel for the fire to make him a cup of tea. She looked about and found a large basket of cloths which she promptly used for firewood.

Mrs. Newell, the former Leona Ascher, came to Jacksonville as a young girl and boarded in the same block where Peter Newell lived with Deacon Henry Irving at 711 West Beecher avenue, next door to Samuel W. Nichols. Mr. Nichols brought Newell here from his home in Bushnell, Ill., and gave him a job in his photograph gallery.

Newell and Miss Ascher were married in the Nichols home. The Newells were both active members of the Congregational church in this city. They moved East to reside, where Newell made illustrations for Harper's Weekly, which sent him to cover the Columbian Exposition at Chicago in 1893, and to the Paris Exposition in 1912.

Private services for Mrs. Newell were held at Mill Neck, N. Y.

Word of her death was received in this city by Miss Mabel Hall Goltz, 1946 Mound avenue.

After the minutes a complete report was given by Council members who attended the State Association of School Boards held Oct. 13 at Kinderhook.

Plans were made for a house to house canvass, to be held before the next meeting, to secure ages of all pre-school children in the Northwestern unit.

The next Council meeting will be held on Dec. 6 at the Modesto high school. At the close of the November meeting Mrs. Nell Albion served refreshments of doughnuts, cider or coffee.

Indict Five On Conspiracy Charge In Louisville, Ky.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Five persons were indicted here Thursday for conspiring to damage property to achieve a political end—communism.

Named in the Jefferson County grand jury action were Vernon Bown, I. O. Ford, Lewis Lubka, Carl Braden, a copywriter for the Louisville Courier-Journal and Mrs. Braden.

All but Lubka, a former union leader, were indicted last September for advocating action there for the purpose of securing the return of an explosion at the home of Andrew Wade IV.

Wade is a Negro electrical contractor who moved into an all-white neighborhood near Shively, Ky., last spring.

Also charged with advocating sedition following the September probe were Miss Louise Gilbert and Miss Larue Spiker. But only Bown was charged with causing the blast.

Thursday's indictments stated the five and other persons unknown "did agree, band or confederate themselves to commit aid or counsel the destruction of Wade's home, and stir up racial hatred. The indictments further declared such action was taken to "promote and advance the cause of communism" within Kentucky and the United States, with the ultimate purpose "of overturning the governments" of the commonwealth and the nation.

The indictments were handed down after Commonwealth's Atty. A. Scott Hamilton, Wade appeared before the jury.

Wade said he merely briefed the jury on events which took place at his home June 27, the night the explosion damaged the building.

Navy Shows Off New Vertical Takeoff Fighter

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The Navy showed off its fantastic vertical takeoff fighter, the Convair XF1Y Pogo Stick, for the first time Thursday.

The dramatic takeoff and aerial transition to forward horizontal flight, and the equally amazing back-down landing, were followed by showings of the Navy's new water-borne aircraft, also built here by the Convair division of General Dynamics Corp.

They were the world's first jet powered seaplane fighter YF2Y Seadart and the huge 80-passenger r361 Tradewind turboprop transport.

During the flight of the Seadart, the seaplane, exploded over San Diego Bay, killing the pilot.

The naval air show was staged for visiting aviation writers and Navy officers.

The turboprop Pogo was piloted by 36-year-old J. F. (Skeets) Coleman of Convair who took the craft up about 50 feet, then backed down gently to the ground. Again he turned on the power—the whirling props appeared no noisier than for less-powerful conventional planes—and the fighter plane again rose majestically.

Fire Killing Mother, Daughter Baffles Authorities

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A mother and daughter were asphyxiated in a fire in their flat early Thursday but authorities and the cause of the blaze baffled them.

It was added, however, that no foul play was indicated in the deaths of Mrs. Hendrina Lang, 66-year-old widow and her unmarried daughter, Angeline, 24.

The flash fire which caused their deaths was in the kitchen, starting near the rear door and away from any electrical wiring, heat pipes and the gas stove. The women's bodies were found in their front bedroom. The fire went out by itself after it had exhausted the oxygen in the upper flat.

William A. Rooster, deputy state fire marshal, said it was "one of the most puzzling fires" he ever had investigated.

Mrs. Zeno Meier, whose family lives downstairs, told authorities she had heard "an awful scream and groans" during the night but that she and her husband went back to sleep after finding their children were all right.

MURDER, HE SAYS—It appears as though there's something violent going on in the above picture. Soprano Maria Leone, of New York's Metropolitan Opera, looks as though she's in great pain as stage director Herman Toren shouts, "Act like you mean it. He is going to kill you!" Miss Leone was rehearsing for her role as Nedda in Pagliacci.

New Floor Care Ends Waxing

One of the most difficult jobs of housekeeping is to keep linoleum and asphalt tile floors waxed and gleaming. Now thanks to Glaxo it is no longer necessary to wax and scrub. All you do is apply Glaxo with a brush about twice a year. It maintains a high lustre, non slip coating that seals out dirt. Glaxo dries in one hour and is water clear. It's cheaper than wax in the long run, besides saving a terrific amount of work plus truly a beautiful floor. Glaxo is available at Bomke Hardware Co.

Joseph White, Joyce Hunt Wed Sunday In Franklin

FRANKLIN—Joseph White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward White of Franklin, and Miss Joyce Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Hunt of Waverly, were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the Franklin Methodist parsonage by the Rev. P. G. Batty, using the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a blue suit and carried an orchid. Mrs. Eva German, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid and John White, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

White is a graduate of Franklin high school and after graduation enlisted in the army, serving in England and was recently honorably discharged. Mrs. White is a graduate of Waverly high school and has been employed at Thrift Store in Waverly. WARGA'S WALGREEN AGENCY EAST SIDE SQUARE

Madness In The Spring By Elinor Denniston

THE STORY: Greg Seaver has left a relatively secure job to be chauffeur for Wade Daggett, a wealthy invalid. Together, they set out in search of adventure. Daggett has not long to live, Greg wants to see life before he is too old to enjoy it. When a plane abandons a man in a field, Greg brings him to the trailer and learns that he is a displaced person smuggled into the country. The man's name is Rupert Landusky.

Daggett shifted his position so that his crooked face was turned to Greg. "Because a handicapped man learns a great deal about people," he said simply. "More than he likes. Do you remember Maugham's 'Of Human Bondage'? When the girl was angry she taunted him about the clubfoot. Because that hurt a handicap is a stick to beat you with when people are angry. You learn fast about human ruthlessness. And you begin to respect human kindness. To discover that it's about the only thing that makes much sense. Landusky isn't dangerous; he's desperate."

"He says," Daggett agreed. "None the less, Greg, if we had not picked him up he would undoubtedly have got pneumonia and died. It sounded theatrical but it happened to be the simple truth."

Men didn't fill themselves up with rage and sit down to die, Greg thought. Or perhaps they did. He remembered how gray Landusky's skin looked, how emaciated he was.

Daggett gave him a sidelong look. "If you are willing to let him have that upper bunk, we could take him along for a few days and see that he gets filled up. If he's no good we can always turn him out. Just give him a trial."

"It's your trailer. You're the boss," Greg was ashamed as soon as he had spoken because he had hurt the old man. Daggett did not want to be regarded as an employer; he wanted to receive the kind of friendship he offered and Greg had flung it back in his face.

Not we, Daggett observed; you Greg was absolving himself from all responsibility at the outset. "Why not?" he asked mildly. "The only way to keep out of trouble is to be dead. I'm in no hurry for that."

"No telling where you are with a guy like that."

"What kind of guy is he?"

It was Daggett's turn to be silent and Greg's to fidget. Greg felt in his pocket and pulled out a paper and pencil. "I'd better stop while we're in town and pick up some grub for lunch."

"I thought you were going to open that can of lobster?" "Yeah," Greg did not look up. "But the guy is half starved. I'll get some potatoes and stuff." He cleared his throat, scowled, and added belligerently, "And from now on he can wash the dishes."

"Fair enough," Daggett agreed. After a few minutes the old man began to whistle, a thin monotone that nonetheless held a note of jubilation.

AS Greg had prophesied, Rupert Landusky appeared to be without gratitude.

He accepted the hospitality and refuge of Daggett's trailer as simply as a child and without comment. But he was not a child. Although only 10 years older than Greg, Landusky was in some respects, immeasurably old. Age seered out of his eyes when the gleam of mockery faded from them. It was implicit in a profound weariness of the spirit. He was devoid of illusions.

When Daggett and Greg returned to the trailer, their enigmatic guest was still asleep. Greg bent over him and then looked on the shelf where he kept the scotch.

"He certainly killed that bottle."

"Well, mix each of us a drink if he left any," Daggett said philosophically. "But you had better keep the whisky locked up after this." The old man was troubled. If his protegee behaved reasonably well he would be justified in keeping him. Otherwise, Greg would make short work of the alien. There was, Daggett admitted reluctantly, something about Greg that smacked of self-righteousness. He found himself wishing that the boy would drop his strained politeness and Rupert his enaged irony and they would fight it out. Maybe then they could be friends.
